

LET'S DIG DEEPER.

They say that the rich soils of the Macon Ridge, in northeast Louisiana, produce the best-tasting sweet potatoes. The only way to know for sure? You got to try them!

Eric Halverson, Black Gold Farms

Selling potatoes year-round.

Growing spuds in 10 states.

Shipping over 500-million pounds of potatoes yearly.

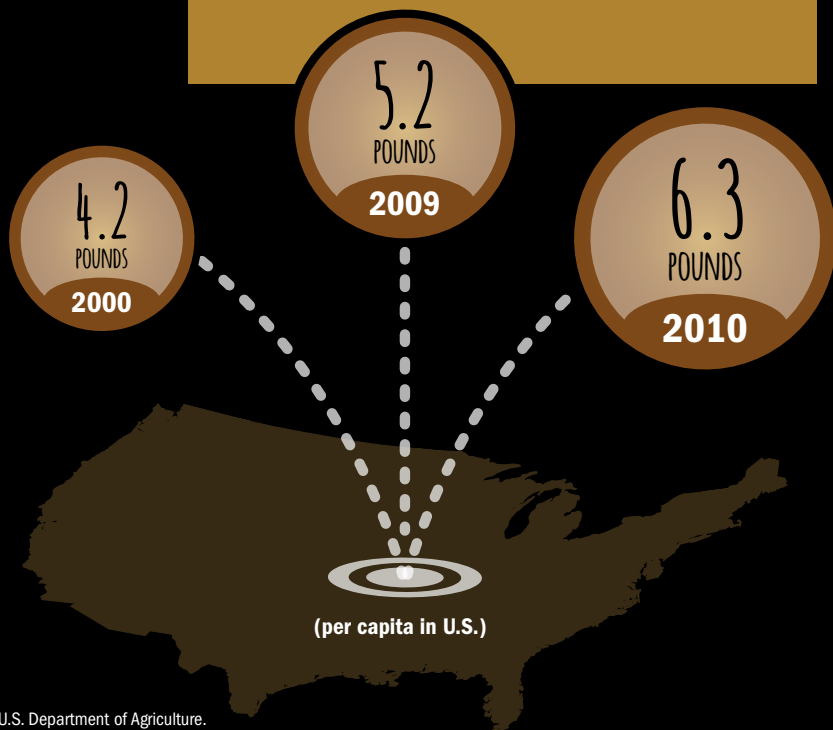

We know a thing or two about potatoes.

SWEETS

THIS COULD BE AMERICA'S SWEETEST SWEET POTATO.

Nation's Sweetheart.

Shoppers are looking for fresh, healthy ideas. From sweet potato chips to gourmet fries, America's appetite for sweets is growing.

Source: U.S. Department of Agriculture.

SWEET LOWDOWN.

Longer and leaner and way sweeter than regular spuds, sweet potatoes have dark, red-orange skin with sweet, orange flesh.

GET VARIETY.

Black Gold Farms grows Beauregard, Orleans, Bayou Belle, Bellevue, Evangeline and Burgundy sweet potatoes.

TASTY & HEALTHY.

Rich in Vitamins A, B6 and C, copper, potassium and iron, fiber-packed sweet potatoes are also high in beta carotene, a powerful antioxidant.

HOME SWEET HOME.

Black Gold Farms' Louisiana sweets are sold fresh and for fries. Our Missouri and Arkansas sweets make delicious french fries.
